

"Cairo 678", by Mohamed Diab

Screened on 9 December, 2011

Runtime: 100'

It may be a taboo subject, but the simple fact is that sexual harassment is an everyday occurrence in Egypt.

The film follows this trio as, frustrated by the kackadaisical response to their complaints from authorities,

The screening was followed by a discussion with prominent human rights activist Engy Ghazwan from Egypt.

Invitation (Poster):

View or download the original invitation \(poster\)

