

United Nations Cinema is coming to the British Museum!

This autumn, for the first time, United Nations Cinema is partnering with the British Museum. We're bringing you two unmissable film screenings as part of a new exhibition opening in September, guest curated by the journalist, satirist, writer and broadcaster Ian Hislop, called L. Object

The Queen of Ireland + click here with Rory O'Neill: September 21st. To register for the event,

Following Rory's journey from the small Mayo town of Ballinrobe to striding the world stage as an icon for

The Poetess: October 20th Click Here register for the event,

The inspiring story of a woman risking her personal safety and seizing an opportunity, live on TV in front

Special Guests

Our screenings are always followed by a panel discussion with special guests. As a thank you for being

Rory O'Neill

The star of the Queen of Ireland and creator of Panti Bliss.

Rory O'Neill grew up in County Mayo, Ireland, and has since become a national figure campaigning for L

Claude Cahn

Human Rights Adviser, Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR)

Claude Cahn has worked for OHCHR since 2009. His current work involves safeguarding human rights

Claude will be joining us for the Queen of Ireland.

Alia Alzougbi

BAFTA nominated, dynamic story-teller and educator.

Alia studied Social Anthropology with a particular focus on unearthing alternative oral histories and intan

Alia will be joining us for The Poetess.

Dagmar Schumacher

Director of UN Women, Brussels Office .

Dagmar Schumacher previously worked at Headquarters of the United Nations Volunteers (UNV) program

Want to make sure you don't miss out? You can stay up to date on all our screenings, interviews, and articles

Follow @cineonu on Twitter and join us on Facebook !

You can also visit our film archive .