

01.04.2016 - This week's #PhotoFriday highlights some of the most important UN news stories from around the world.

United Nations Secretary General Ban Ki-moon signs a book of condolences. Photo: UN Photo/Rick Bajornas

Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon signs a book of condolences at the Permanent Mission of Belgium to the United Nation, on the loss of lives as a result of the 22 March terrorist attacks in Brussels. 35 people died in the attacks and 270 were injured.

A few days later on 27 March, a seperate terror attack in Lahore, Pakistan left 70 people died and over 250 injured.

Blackburn: Britain's Prime Minister David Cameron (left) and US Secretary of State John Kerry (right) show

The White House Secretary of State John Kerry (left) and British Prime Minister David Cameron (right) attend a meeting at the White House in Washington, DC, on April 1, 2016.

The World This Week: A large ball sits on the dirt ground in the foreground of a playground area under construction.

The World This Week: A man in a dark suit and red tie sits on a green chair on a stage, next to a framed painting of a man in a suit.

View of the Forbidden City in Beijing, China. Photo by Lancy for the month of April 2016. China assumes the rotating presidency of the Security Council for the month