

TOMORROW

EEN FILM VAN CYRIL DION & MÉLANIE LAURENT

On 21 November 2016 United Nations Cinema proudly partnered with Aviva plc to raise awareness of the Sustainable Development Goals, through the screening of “Tomorrow” in Central London.

Through the film, directors Cyril Dion and Mélanie Laurent wanted to demonstrate that showing solutions and telling a feel-good story might be the best way to solve the ecological, economical and social crises that we are currently going through.

The projection of the film at Aviva’s London office was followed by a Q & A with representatives from, Aviva plc, Restless Development, Make Sense, the World Food Program and the United Nations Regional Information Centre in Brussels.

United Nations Cinema brings critically acclaimed film "Tomorrow" to London

Tuesday, 22 November 2016 15:46

A UN Film Centre event in London, featuring the film 'Tomorrow' by Yannick Dahan and Christophe Schuler, on the occasion of the UN Climate Change Summit, 22 November 2016.

The UN Secretary-General's report on the state of the world in 2016, 'Our Common Future', is the first of its kind. This report is the first of its kind, and it is a landmark document. It is a landmark document, and it is a landmark document.

United Nations Cinema brings critically acclaimed film "Tomorrow" to London