

Her Royal Highness Mary, the Crown Princess of Denmark, concluded the European Development Days on 6 June with an impassioned plea for the future of the planet.

“We have for too long lived with over-consumption, uncontrolled growth and the exhaustion of the planet’s resources. So, the world, we the people of the world, have to make the strongest efforts to meet the promises that have been made to protect the planet, remedy our wrongdoings and secure the future of our planet that gives us life. And girls and women are also key in this endeavour,” she said.

Women key to sustainability, Danish Crown Princess tells EDDs

Thursday, 07 June 2018 10:03

Women are the key to sustainability, Danish Crown Princess tells EDDs

Princess Mette-Marie of Denmark writes on a whiteboard during a meeting with EDDs in Copenhagen, June 7, 2018. (AP Photo/Thomas Lorentzen)